He couldn't tell just how many pots he had played in with Reilly, but thought the total would reach at least fifty. Once in a great while Reilly had generously said, "That's good," as he threw down his hand to Foley, but episodes of that kind seldom occurred. "Once," Foley said, "Reilly opened a jackpot and I dragged along for $10 with a bobtall flush. I filled, ace high, and thought I had him beat. He raised and I bottered him, and when there was $60 up Reilly called. He had a full house."

Foley intimated that the game and some of the players were crooked. To Lawyer Charles Steckler, his attorney in the action, Foley displayed an intimate know! "Once," Foley said, "Reilly opened a

ONE TRAIN ROBBER KILLED. But His Comrade Escaped with Some Reg-istered Mail Packages.

Klagman, Ariz., Feb. 9 .- Two robbers attempted to hold up the westbound pas-senger train on the Santa Fe line, sixty off the engine and uncouple the express and mail cars. Messenger Sellers fired at one of the robbers, who was standing near the engine, and the latter fell dead.

The other robber than compelled the fireman to get on the engine and express and mail cars up the road, where it was stopped, and the robber made an unsuccessful attempt to get into the express car. The mell car was then entered and several registered packages were taken, and the robber then disappeared in the darkness. The dead robber has not been identified. Officers
